

Program Feline inspiration days 30th-31st of March 2023

Thursday 30th of March

Time	Topic	Speaker
8.30 - 9.30	Arrival and registration	BI
9.30 - 9.40	Welcome	BI
9.40 - 10.40	How to have a Cat Friendly Clinic and why it is so important to address the role that stress can play in the assessment and interpretation of our feline patients.	DGM
10.40 - 11.10	Coffee
11.10 - 12.10	It's all about the eyes! Brush-up on feline ophthalmic anatomy, physiology, eye examination and important diagnostic procedures - tips and tricks.	LBB
12.10-12.20	Short break
12.20 - 13.15	Care for elderly cats with behavioural problems Part 1; based on a case, thinking about all of the myriad causes that may be involved, with a particular focus on feline dementia.	DGM
13.15 - 14.30	Lunch
14.30 - 15.30	Care for elderly cats with behavioural problems Part 2; based on the same case, with a particular focus on the role that arthritis may play in these cats, then more thoughts about ways to improve the care of our Old Souls in our clinics.	DGM
15.30 - 16.00	Coffee
16.00 - 17.00	A change of colour! Surface diseases of the feline eye: Adnexa, conjunctiva and cornea with focus on Feline Herpes Virus and related diseases.	LBB
17.00-18.15	Free time
18.15 - 19.00	Drinks in the exhibition area
19.00 - 22.00	Dinner

Friday 31st of March

Time	Topic	Speaker
8.00 - 8.45	Clinical decision making part 1 - Kahoot! A selection of feline clinical eye cases with an interactive approach.	LBB
8.45-8.55	Short break
8.55-9.45	How about that pressure! Uveitis and glaucoma - searching for the primary cause with focus on clinical presentation, work-up and therapy.	LBB
9.45 - 10.10	Coffee
10.10 - 11.05	The Role of Stress in Feline Lower Urinary Tract Disease: is it the cause of >90% of cases? Part 1; proving that stress causes stress cystitis, urinary tract infections, urothelial carcinoma and even oxalate stones...	DGM
11.05-11.15	Short break
11.15 - 12.10	My cat is blind! Feline retinal diseases with focus on hypertensive retinopathy and feline central blindness.	LBB
12.10 - 13.20	Lunch
13.20 - 14.15	The Role of Stress in Feline Lower Urinary Tract Disease: is it the cause of >90% of cases? Part 2; treating stress cystitis, urinary tract infections, urothelial carcinoma and oxalate stones, with a focus on how to reduce the stress that underlays so many of these cases.	DGM
14.15-14.45	Coffee
14.45 - 15.40	Clinical Decision making part 2 - Kahoot! A selection of feline clinical eye cases with an interactive approach.	LBB
15.40 - 15.50	Short break
15.50-16.50	Feline infectious peritonitis – even the new drugs are not enough if stress is not addressed; tips on improving diagnosis, and detail about how to use the new drugs.	DGM
16.50-17.00	Thank you and goodbye	BI